Sports Magazine Offers 50,000 Free Subscriptions to Military

HEIDELBERG, GE – A sporting magazine and a non-profit sports organization have teamed up to thank the men and women of the U.S. military by offering a one-year free subscription to The Sporting News Magazine.

FirstSwing and The Sporting News are funding subscriptions for 60 issues to the first 50,000 service members who register.

To register, send the following information to firstswing36@hotmail.com and if you are among the first 50,000 to respond, the magazine will begin arriving in six to eight weeks.

First & Last Name
APO Address

There is no requirement to cancel the subscription at the end of the year. It will cancel automatically unless the individual decides to renew.

Commanders may submit their units in place of individuals.

Contact FirstSwing for further information. FirstSwing has agreed not to transfer or use the addresses or personal information of the military recipients for any purpose other than for sending the gift subscriptions.

You can find out more information on Sporting News and FirstSwing, at www.firstswingcamps.com and www.sportingnews.com
